

Campus-dwellers revel in Pesach spirit

THE Australasian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS) together with Young Adult Chabad hosted an event at Macquarie University, where shmura matza was distributed to students to take home for their seder. The highlight of the event was a "yeast feast", where much kosher pizza was consumed and Rabbi Eli Feldman addressed the crowd on the topic: "Love versus Lust: how to tell the difference".

Meanwhile, the matzah bakery came to call at Sydney University for the first time in history.

Macquarie University students with Rabbi Eli Feldman (far right), set to launch into a kosher pizza "yeast feast", in preparation for Pesach.

